U.O. No 602. S.L. 825 12th August 1926.

During the absence of the Dewan from Bangalore from 14th August 1926 to 26th August 1926, a number of Government Promotes which required his signature and which no one else, could sign for him, have been held up in this office.

These bonds had to be returned to private persons and they have all been put to inconvenience by the delay in returning the bonds to them, and in one case the holder complained to this office that the delay meant loss to him, as he wanted to give these bonds as security for a contract and had now to get money elsewhere for the purpose.

As it is neither desirable nor expedient to put the public to inconvenience I think that it is necessary to have a standing arrangement under which cases of the kind could be disposed of during the Dewan's absence. The following are the documents for which the Dewan's signature is at present necessary:-

1. Government of India Bonds held in trust by this office and standing in his name.

2. Bond of the Mysore Government held in trust etc.,

3. Confirmation of cheques drawn on Banks for over Rs. 30,000/-.

In regard to 1, as the rules sta at present, these bonds can stand only in the name of the Dewan though as per appendix III of the Government Securities Manual, many officers of the Government of India including Collectors can hold Government of India Pro-notes, in their official capacity. It is for consideration if we may not go up to Government of India and get power to have them in the official name of the Chief Secretary or Financial Secretary to Government also.

2. As regards 2, in the case of our pro-notes also, it is for consideration if the rules may not be amended so as to provide for the Chief Secretary or the Financial Secretary to Government holding such bonds in his official capacity. As regards 3, no serious inconvenience is caused at present as the Bank will generally honour such cheques when it is stated that the Dewan's confirmation will follow.

Please put up precious papers. references. There was a proposal to authorise Huzursag & comptr to hold bonds in their off Cap letters. They have also proposed the 99.5 / Mark

9 The present Comptroller's proposal is contained in para 2 of his unofficial note. He suggests that either the Finl. Secretary or the Chief Secretary be authorised to hold bonds (both Govt. of India and Mysore State Loan Bonds) in their official capacity. The main reason for the Comptroller to propose these officers holding bonds in their official capacity is the inconvenience caused to parties during the Dewan's absence, but the Comptroller does not go into the question of the need for empowering any officer at all in the Sectt. to hold bonds in his official capacity. I do not think there is any such need at all. In fact as early as May 1921 the previous Comptroller had suggested the following three officers being authorised to held bonds in their official capacity, viz., (1) Huzur Secretary, (2) Comptroller, and (3) Muzrai Supdt. For various reasons this proposal was dropped then. The Huzur Secretary has since been authorised to hold bonds in his official capacity; the question of the Muzrai Supdt. being empowered was not examined as that place was about to be abolished and has since been abolished. ~~In this view~~ we may therefore as regards the need for empowering another officer to hold bonds in his official capacity accept the Comptroller's proposal to notify the Comptroller only, (and not the Chief Secy. or the Finl. Secy. as suggested by him,) as empowered by holding bonds in his official capacity. I may add that under the present arrangement although all such bonds coming to the Dewan for endorsements pass through the Finl. Sectt. we cannot exercise any sort of scrutiny whatever as we have no references here in the Finl. Sectt. and thus there is no special reason why the present system should continue. The Comptroller publishes an annual report of the Securities held by him and inspects these securities twice in a year. We may ask him to send us these inspection reports regularly each half year. There is absolutely no ~~reason~~ harm in authorising the Comptroller to hold bonds in his official capacity since several detailed accounts are maintained in his office ensuring the correctness and accuracy of such holdings. In British India a number of officers have been empowered to hold bonds in their official capacities. (Vide App. III - Govt. Securities Manual) & the Chief Court has sent up proposals to empower munsiffs in his behalf in certain cases

If the above proposals are approved, we may move the Govt of India re- empowering the Comptr to hold Govt of India bonds in his offl capacity

12. A similar proposal to relieve the Darwan of Sculptory work was made by the Comptroller in 1921, tho the suggestion then was to authorise the Comptr, Treasury Secretary & the Mily Supdt to hold Govt securities in their official capacity.

Reference is invited to F.D. note of 6.7.22 page 16. Flag 7.

13 No change was considered necessary in the existing arrangement then.

As previously proposed the Comptr may be authorised under Sub section 1 of section 6 of the Mily Sec Securities Regulation and the Govt may be addressed for empowering him to hold the Govt bonds in his official capacity.
